REQUESTS:

REQUEST 1): Attorney General Ken Paxton said he urgently needs to meet with President Trump. AG Paxton was on vacation in Jamaica and cut it short to fly back to DC support and speak at the rally on the 6th. In his speech he plans to highlight the case that he brought on behalf of Texas to the Supreme Court. He arrives in DC at 6:00PM on Tuesday, January 5th and could meet that evening or anytime on January 6th or 7th. Paxton's mobile is [REDACTED] & his assistant is Michelle Smith [REDACTED] (m).

REQUEST 2): Julie Fancelli lives in Lakeland, FL and is the daughter of Publix founder George W. Jenkins. Julie has been a tremendous supporter of President Trump and she and her family have donated over $1.5 million to the Trump Victory campaign. She has personally funded the expenses for the March to Save America rally which totals over $2.1 million. If possible, she would love the opportunity to come by the White House and say hello to President Trump. Alternatively, a phone call to thank her would be very much appreciated. She wants no public recognition for her support so please do not include her in any remarks. Julie's mobile is [REDACTED] or you can go through Caroline Wren to schedule the meeting or call [REDACTED].

MEMBERS OF CONGRESS PARTICIPATION:

- We believe it will be a powerful message to have Members of Congress attend the rally at The Ellipse to show their solidarity and support of President Trump in front of the White House ahead of the electoral college vote at 1:00pm. We have identified a window between 9:45am-10:30am where Capitol Police would assist busing the members over from the Capitol to The Ellipse and they would all take the stage together and we could then designate a couple of Members to give brief remarks.
  - U.S. Senate: Senator Tommy Tuberville has offered to spearhead the effort with his colleagues in the Senate to come to The Ellipse and the other invited Senators would include: Marsha Blackburn of Tennessee, Mike Braun of Indiana, Ted Cruz of Texas, Steve Daines of Montana, Bill Hagerty of Tennessee, Josh Hawley of Missouri, Ron Johnson of Wisconsin, John Kennedy of Louisiana, James Lankford of Oklahoma, Cynthia Lummis of Wyoming, Roger Marshall of Kansas
  - U.S. House: Congressmen Mo Brooks, Matt Gaetz, Louie Gohmert and Madison Cawthorn would spearhead the organization among their colleagues to bus over from the Capitol to the Ellipse to participate in the program.

- They launched the March for Trump bus tour after the election was stolen and have been traveling across the country holding elected officials accountable.
- WFAF released all other permits to allow other organizations to participate and set up stages, including Freedom Plaza on Jan 5th.

Note: There is a Stop the Steal Coalition and a Stop the Steal Organization that participate in the coalition which are very different.

Discussion:

- Event flow and speaker line up

Recommendations:

- Keep the Ellipse portion intimate and official to control the narrative.
- Limit to 2016 surrogates (vetted and on your team not their own).
- Eliminate convicted felons that could damage the other speakers.
- Keep the fringe on the fringe. We have alternative states available.

WOMEN FOR AMERICA FIRST

Women for America First is a nonprofit organization that was founded by Georgia native Amy Kremer. WFA has spent the last few months since Election Day organizing bus tours and rallies throughout the nation at state capitols in protest of the widespread election fraud that occurred last year.

Kremer is an American political activist associated with the Tea Party movement. She became involved in the movement in 2009 and campaigned as part of the Tea Party Express until 2014. Along with WFAF, during the 2016 presidential election, she also founded a second PAC, Women for Trump. In 2017 she unsuccessfully ran for the U.S. House of Representatives in a special election in Georgia's 6th congressional district.

TURNING POINT ACTION

Turning Point Action is a 501 organization founded in May 2019 by Turning Point USA founder Charlie Kirk. It is a political action committee intended to target Democrats. It purchased the assets of Students for Trump.

In September 2020, The Washington Post reported Turning Point Action had paid young people in Arizona, some of them minors, to post Turning Point content on their social media accounts without disclosing their affiliation with Turning Point, and that Turning Point had given them specific instructions how to make minor alterations to the content to prevent detection that it came from the same source.

Kirk is a staunch American conservative activist and radio talk show host who, prior to founding Turning Point Action, founded Turning Point USA with William T. Montgomery in 2012 and serves as its executive director.
